

My Trip to Herkimer
Bill Curtin

This is Ron Murray he is an osteopath from Idaho he other job is working with a friend selling world class top of the line Herkimer it took him 2 days to open this pocket but he said it was very large he opened it at 1230 he was taking stones out the rest of the day he gave me a few good lessons about it stuffing sponges to protect them from getting scratched he uses a pry bar made for moving concrete forms and only hand made chisels he's got 60 of them back to me I found a few in matrix and about 15 singles so I really have to increase my numbers it's been a great trip so far.
